This trawler went ashore at Melrakka Slette, north coast of Iceland, on the 14th January last & was reported to be a total wreck.

It was subsequently stated, however, that attempts were being made to save the vessel.

No further information reached this office until a letter, dated 4th May, was received from the Board of Trade, giving notice of a formal investigation into the "stranding & subsequent total loss" of the trawler.

In reply to a casualty notice the Owners now state, in a letter dated 8th May, that this ship has not been given up as a total loss by the Underwriters, but as soon as they do so, they will inform this office.

13th June 1933

The Grimsby Surveyors now state, in a communication dated 12th June, that this vessel has now been given up as a total loss by the Underwriters.
