Dear Sir,

Referring to previous correspondence respecting the outstanding fee of £5: 5: 0 for the damage survey of the Steam Trawler "RIGHTWAY", I beg to inform you that the Owners' local representative, Mr. T.T. Irvin, is stated to be confined to bed through illness, and no communication is possible either in person or by telephone.

Thus we do not yet know whether he has fulfilled his promise to write to the Grater Steam Fishing Co., Ltd., and recommend payment.

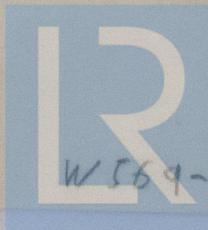

As he always gave us to understand that he was the actual Owner until the question of the fee arose, and as it is freely stated in this port that he is financially embarrassed, and is very averse to paying any accounts, I am afraid it must be concluded that the Owners have no intention of paying our fee.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

P. Fitzgerald

The Secretary,
LONDON.
