Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 30th ult. respecting the outstanding fees in the case of the Steam Trawler "RIGHTWAY", I beg to inform you that we have several times tried to get in touch with the Owners' local representative, Mr. T.T. Irvin, by telephone, but have each time been informed that he was confined to bed through illness. We have also written, and had no reply. We have now received a message to the effect that he will write to the Company's Office at North Shields, and request them to pay the fee, from which it appears that he has not yet carried out his previous promises to do this. We understand that a local vessel the "TOM JENKERSON" is to be dry docked this week for inspection by representatives of the Crater Steam Fishing Co. with a view to purchase, in which case we may be able to see some responsible person in connection with this outstanding fee.

We are, Dear Sir,

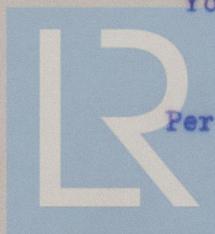

Yours faithfully,

The Surveyors,
