Dear Sir,

We duly received your letter of the 6th inst. enclosing copy of letter from the Newcastle Surveyors respecting the outstanding fee of £5: 5/- for damage survey held on the Steam Trawler "RIGHTWAY", and in reply thereto beg to state that the original account was forwarded to the Crater Steam Fishing Co., Ltd., on the 8th July, 1932.

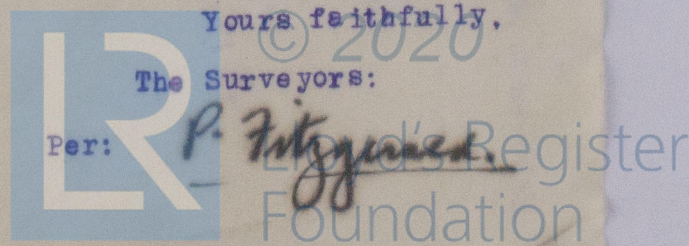

As regards the rest of the points raised in the Newcastle letter, we have again been in touch with Mr. T.T. Irvin, who states that he cannot understand the attitude of the Secretary of the Company, who must surely be aware that the surveys were carried out at Mr. Irvin's own request. Mr. Irvin himself has always admitted liability for the fee, but does not appear to have carried out his promise of the 8th ultimo to communicate with the Secretary of the Company regarding payment. He now states that he will write to them pointing out that the survey was held at his request, and that the fee should be paid.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

The Surveyors:
