Empire House, Mount Stuart Square,

Cardiff, 8th December 1932.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 7th instant and the steamer "MUREX", I beg to confirm your assumption that the closing appliance fitted to the tonnage opening in the after end of bridge is a portable steel plate secured by bolts which do not pass through the bulkhead plating.

The fee of £5-5-0 has been paid and the certificates handed over here today.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Thomas Miller
