Dear Sirs,

S. I beg to acquaint you that the Committee have to-day had under consideration your letter of the 1st instant, having regard to the survey of the main boilers of your Steamer "MANX ISLES", from which it is noted that it is your intention either to break this vessel up or dispose of her for further service as soon as her present use as a depot ship is ended in two or three months' time, and I have to say that in these circumstances the Committee will not object to the inspection of the main boilers being postponed for the present as desired.

I am, Dear Sirs,

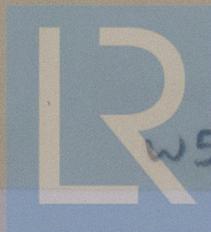

Yours faithfully,
