Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 20th instant, forwarding one from Mr. Lyle, regarding the nature of the survey held by him on the No.5 double bottom tank of the S.S."ORITA", I take it that the Owners will have no objection to my passing on the information contained in Mr. Lyle's letter to Lloyd's Underwriters, but in view of the fact that it is not strictly in accordance with the statement which the Owners appear to have made to the Underwriters, I think it would be courteous to mention the matter to them, and I shall be glad if you will kindly do so.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Secretary,

LIVERPOOL.
