Dear Sir,

S/S " ANDROMEDA ".

We have received your favour of today, and carefully note all you write, and we would hasten to assure you that there is no question of Owners not carrying out their undertaking if they eventually decide to trade with the ship in question.

The position at present is that the vessel is laid up at ROTTERDAM, and a decision will be taken by the Owners within the latest, a fortnight, as to whether she should be sold for scrapping purposes or the Survey proceeded with, and under the circumstances we wish to hope that the Committee will be agreeable to defer action until then.

Yours faithfully,
RETHYMNIS & KULUKUNDIS, LTD.

M. Kulukundis
for DIRECTOR.

In view of the fact that the vessel is laid up at Rotterdam, it is suggested that the vessel should be sold for scrapping purposes.
On advice of JGD
