201, Tower Building,

Liverpool, 23rd February, 1932

Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 20th instant respecting the steamer "WARWICKSHIRE", I beg to acquaint you that on consulting the Superintendent to the Bibby Line I am informed that the vessel is sailing for Japan within the next few days and will be broken up on arrival.

Nothing is being done as regards the examination of the port screwshaft.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

D.M. Keith

Secretary to the
Liverpool Committee.
