Recd 27 JUL 1925
LONDON

Dear Sir,

Reverting to your letter of the 21st instant relative to the proposed classification with this Society of the steel 3-masted motor ship "CARGO SHIPPER", I have to inform you that the survey has been completed on the hull and the machinery, and the vessel is eligible in my opinion to receive the class contemplated, viz: 100 A.1.

I regret that it is impossible to forward my report before Saturday, I was engaged until 9-30 p.m. on the 27th instant, until 9 p.m on the 28th instant, and finished the trial of the machinery at 7-30^{P.M.} on the 30th instant.

I have been absent from Ipswich all this day, and leaving again to-night for Beccles, Lowestoft and Yarmouth, I trust that this explains the reason why the delay in forwarding my report.

I am, Dear Sir,

The Secretary,
LONDON.

Yours faithfully,

A. G. Farminier
