23rd August, 1935.

M. Dear Sir,

Reverting to your letter of the 15th instant I have the pleasure to state that I have today despatched to your address under separate cover twelve sets of the copies of the reports enumerated in the list sent by you.

I have to point out that as the original report dealing with the fracture of the plate F.4 on the port side was made by the Society's Surveyors at Falmouth in September 1928 copies of the following reports are also sent :-

Falmouth Rpt.No.6861 dated September 1928)	Hull and
" " " 7216 " June 1930 )	machinery.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
