31st December, 1934.

Dear Sir,

R. With reference to my letters of the 18th and your replies of the 20th instant respecting the Steam Trawlers "FLINT CASTLE" and "MACLEAY", I beg to acquaint you that the Committee have had the cases of these vessels before them, and I am directed to inform you that, after consideration of all the circumstances, they feel that, consistently with the course followed in similar instances, records of the strandings of the vessels should be made against their names in the Register Book, as described in my letters referred to above.

I may add, however, that in the event of the vessels being refloated and repaired to the satisfaction of the Society's Surveyors the notations of casualty will be withdrawn immediately upon reclassification by this Society.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Clerk to the Classification Committee.
