2 ENCLOSURES.

26th March, 1913.

Sir,

With reference to the Greenock First Entry Reports on the s.s. "BENALLA", I have to acquaint you that the Committee have had the case before them at their meeting today together with reports received from the Society's Surveyors at this port from which it appears that the vessel has been examined in dry dock and the necessary repairs carried out. The vessel's class has been continued with fresh date of survey 3.13 Ben. without special condition.

The first entry certificates are enclosed herewith.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

Secretary

The Secretary

GLASGOW.
