Dear Sir,

I have to confirm the receipt of your cablegram of yesterday's date reading as follows :

EMPRESS SCOTLAND
YCHRI
YBZOX

Name of vessel
Owners pressing for certificate forward your report immediately

I have to state that the reports were handed to the Consul General for forwarding as there has been no rail or post these last eight days, Travelling expenses £ 20:0: telegrams extra. There is considerable difficulty in getting to and from vessels on account of ice in the river, you can have no conception as to how we are hampered as you have never had a similar experience at home.

I am, Dear Sir

Yours faithfully

Geo. Dykes
