Dear Sir,

Further to my letter of the 16th instant, I have been requested by Mr. J. Hindmarsh to send the account to Messrs. Constants, Ltd., National Provincial Bank Buildings, Docks, Cardiff, and this has been sent today, with a request that a cheque be sent direct to you.

The official receipt is enclosed for forwarding to them on payment, of the account.

I trust that this is the correct procedure in this case.

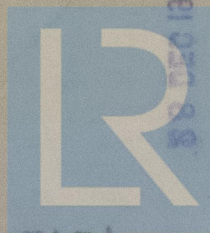

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

E. Hindmarsh

The Secretary,

I am, Dear Sir,

this case.

I think that this is the correct procedure in to them on payment of the account.

The official receipt is enclosed for forwarding that a cheque be sent direct to you.

Do not, Sir, and this has been sent today, with a request need re-emphasized by Mr. J. L. Hinchman to send the account to London, that is, to my letter of the 11th inst.
