21st May, 1914.

Dear Sirs,

With reference to the case of the steel screw steamer "MOORISH PRINCE", recently built by Messrs. Short Brothers, at Sunderland, I have to acquaint you that new cables have been forwarded to your port and will be placed on board.

I shall be glad if you will be so good as to give the case the necessary attention and forward a report on the same when the cables have been placed on board and examined.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

MIDDLESBROUGH.
