Hull, 15th August, 1940.

Dear Mr. Sladden,

We have your official letter of the 13th instant regarding the fee to be charged in the case of the Dutch steamer "OOSTPLEIN", and I wonder if there is any chance of having this sum of £25 increased.

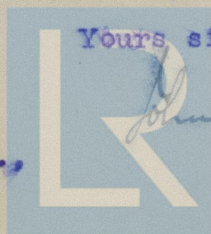

From the correspondence about this case, we understood that Classification of the ship was contemplated, and took a great deal of trouble to advance the classification survey as far as possible. On very many occasions, there were two Surveyors attending on board, and I think that our services in this case deserve a much higher fee.

If the matter is closed, it cannot be helped, but if there is a chance of an increase in the fee, I can write officially and give some details of how our services were rendered.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

R. J. Sladden, Esq.,
WOKINGHAM.
