Ocean Chambers, Lowgate,

Hull, 3rd July, 1940.

Enclosure.

Dear Sir,

and telegram
With reference to your letter of the 1st instant respecting the German-classed Dutch steamer "OOSTPLEIN", we beg to advise you that a General Examination has now been carried out and as much of the classification survey as possible will be held before the vessel sails.

At the same time, we are enclosing herewith a plan of the boiler, which has been loaned to us by the Chief Engineer, and which we shall be glad if you will be good enough to copy and return to us as soon as possible.

We are, Dear Sir,

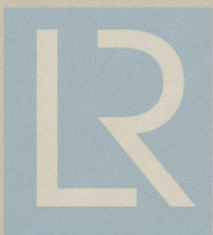

Yours faithfully,

The Surveyors,

The Chancellor,

Home Secretary

Dear Sir,

to me as much as possible.

It is now a long time since I have had the opportunity of seeing you at the Home Office, and I am sure that you will be glad to hear from me again.

At the same time, we are enclosing herewith some letters which have been sent to you by the Home Secretary, and I am sure that you will be glad to see them.

I am sure that you will be glad to see them, and I am sure that you will be glad to see them.

I am sure that you will be glad to see them, and I am sure that you will be glad to see them.

I am sure that you will be glad to see them, and I am sure that you will be glad to see them.

I am sure that you will be glad to see them, and I am sure that you will be glad to see them.

Yours faithfully,

Yours faithfully,
