LONDON

Rotterdam, 12th Aug., 1933.

(Postbox 701.)

Communications to be addressed to—
THE SURVEYORS.

S. Dear Sir,

In reply to your S. letter of yesterday's date regarding the steamer "WESTERDYK", I have to state that it is reported in this morning's paper that the vessel has left this port for Bo'ness.

Upon further inquiries made at the Hook of Holland station it is stated that she has just left the New Waterway in tow of a British tug.

No further information can be obtained,

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,
London.
