95, Bothwell Street, Glasgow, C.2.

31st July, 1933.

Sir,

I beg to confirm the telegrams which have passed between us to-day reading as follow:-

RECEIVED:-

"WESTERDYK reported purchased by Douglas and Ramsey for breaking up purposes please interview this firm and wire confirmation vessel their property. Vessel may be resold Japan"

SENT:-

"WESTERDYK property of Douglas and Ramsey with view to breaking up. They have received offer of resale to Japan which they are considering".

Mr. Ramsey informs me that Mr. Douglas is in London to-day and it is possible that he may call at your office in regard to this case, as it is understood that the prospective Japanese purchasers may require a certificate of seaworthiness for the voyage to Japan.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

P. L. Warlow.

Secretary to the Glasgow Committee.

The Secretary,
