9th April, 1935.

Dear Sirs,

H.

I have to acquaint you that following a satisfactory General Examination at Liverpool the Committee have agreed to the steamer "AUTHOR", which has been purchased by the Italian General Shipping Ltd., of this City, proceeding to Italy with a non-perishable cargo, on the understanding that the vessel is to be broken up immediately after ^{the} discharge of her present cargo in Italy. I shall, therefore, be glad if you will keep the case in mind and advise me immediately the work of demolition is commenced.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

pro Secretary.

The Surveyors,

TRIESTE.

P.S. It is understood the vessel is proceeding to Venice.
