KOBE

S.S. "KASHIN MARU".

75144

With reference to the above vessel, belonging to the Hokkaido Tanko K.K., I have to acquaint you that in March last it was reported that this vessel was caught in a typhoon off Inuboyesaki Lighthouse, and it was supposed that she had been totally lost at sea, all on board being saved. In the Official Japanese Return, dated September, it was stated that the vessel sank off Shanghai.

In the absence of a reply to a casualty notice addressed to the Owners, I may say that the vessel's class has been expunged, and a record of "Lost, 3.28" inserted.

In all the circumstances, however, I shall be glad if you will be good enough to ascertain to ascertain and let me know the exact facts of the case.
