In view of the length of time these accounts have remained unpaid, the Committee would appreciate it very much if you could obtain payment. When the accounts were issued by Mr. Shaw, it was desired that payment should be made in London; but if this course is not possible, payment may be made in Finmarks at your office, for the credit of the Society.

Thanking you in anticipation of your valued assistance in this matter,

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
