Sir,

LLOYD'S REGISTER
LONDON.

REC'D 1 AUG 1902

ANSR

In reply to your letter of yesterday's date, having reference to the case of the new steamer "Barone Edmondo Vaj", recently built at Londonderry, I beg to say that on referring to the copy of Mr. Beveridge's report No 5445, Mr. B. being on leave, the blow off cocks are there stated to be fitted with a spigot and brass covering plate.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant
James Purpur
