22nd November, 1901.

Dear Sirs,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 21st instant, respecting the steamer "WHITGIFT", built by you, and in compliance with your request I now have pleasure in sending you herewith a letter signed by Mr. Munro, one of the Society's Surveyors on this establishment, who inspected and tested the tanks of this vessel in London in August last.

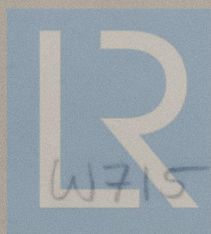

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
