Sir,

Replying to the London letter dated the 11th ultimo regarding the machinery of the Cantiere Navale Triestino's 1047 ship, I beg to say that prior to leaving Trieste I had examined the fitting of the sea connections. Preparations were being made to run out the stern frame.

I may add that the machinery for this vessel was ordered in the first case from Messrs J.G. Kincaid & Co. of Greenock.

Yours,

Your obedient servant,
