The Secretary
London

Referring to my weekly return of vessels under survey dated 24th January last which included the wooden steamer Taffari, I beg to state that only one call was paid to this vessel at the master's request for the purpose of discussion - We were to be called at the commencement of the repairs - The vessel sailed without our being called, it was understood that the repairs would be in hand upon her return, but she has been lost by fire, so that no report can be forwarded - It is not thought advisable to charge any fee in this case -

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant
A. Smarck
