New York City.

Gentlemen:

Complying with request contained in your letter of January 8th, beg to state that the clipping hereto attached gives the correct information with the following exceptions:

The "Mount Hood" was entirely destroyed by fire in the ante-port of Montevideo at midnight on October 10th, 1919.

The "Santino" is an auxiliary twin screw oil engine vessel. Santino

Vessel shown as "Mount Batcer" should be "Mount Baker".

Insofar as the names of the masters are concerned: We have had occasion to change them rather frequently and I am therefore not filling in this data.

Very truly yours,

Vice President and General Manager.
