

Wreck 149.

VOLMER (s).—Penzance, Dec. 28, 8 30 p.m.— Captain and one sailor landed here this evening both much exhausted and now in hospital. They are believed to be from steamer Volmor or Volmer, of Copenhagen, from Swansea. Steamer foundered. Men in boat two days; remainder of crew supposed drowned.
Hope able see captain in morning to get particulars.

—Penzance, Dec. 29, 1 20 p.m.— Steamer Volmer, of Copenhagen, from Swansea to Nice, cargo coals, foundered during heavy gale Dec. 26, at 3 p.m., 25 miles south of Scilly. The hatches broke in and vessel sustained other damages. Crew took to boats, which capsized alongside ship. Captain and one German sailor saved by steam trawler and landed here yesterday; both men very exhausted and still in hospital.—[See Newlyn under "Miscellaneous."]

Notice
2/1/13

© 2021

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

W 781 - 0118