Dear Sirs,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 6th instant respecting the steam trawler "WARTER PRIORY", which is at present under repair at Gosport, and in reply to your enquiry have to state that in the case of repairs being effected to vessels in the Service of the Admiralty, you should take no action as regards survey, unless requested to do so by the Owners' representatives or the Government Officials.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

Southampton.
