Messrs Lloyds Register of Shipping,
71, Fenchurch St.,
London E.C.

Dear Sirs.

"Malabar" and "Kimberley"

I much regret that we are unable to ^{put} any of these vessels through their special No. 3 survey. We can manage to get the survey on machinery and boiler through, but so far as the ship is concerned we could not afford the time nor could we find the labour to do the work.

There are so few trawlers running now that it is absolutely necessary to keep them at the fishing. We are quite prepared to do all that is possible and if there is any portion of the survey that your surveyor would recommend doing at once we will try and get it through at the vessels ordinary settling time, but we cannot promise anything further than this.

Yours faithfully,

John V. ...
Director & Secretary.

Now and to the fact that the ship is concerned as could not be better than the fact that the ship is concerned as could not

There is no reason to believe that the ship is concerned as could not

I have no reason to believe that the ship is concerned as could not
