71, Fenchurch Street, E.C.

1 ENCLOSURE.

24th March, 1911.

Gentlemen,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 23rd instant respecting your First Entry Report No. 23326 on the steamer "HULL TRADER", and in reply have to acquaint you that the fees for the survey of the machinery of this vessel have not yet been paid.

I am, however, making a further application to the Engineers today for the fees, and with a view to saving time, I enclose herewith the hull certificate of classification, which should not be handed over to the Builders until the receipt of a telegram from this Office that the machinery fees have been paid.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

Secretary

The Surveyors,

HULL. ERY.
