Dear Sirs,

With reference to your letter of the 1st instant, I regret to state that it is not possible to give a general reply to your inquiry regarding vessels built for river and coasting trade which are being converted for ocean trade, and that as regards the particular vessel named by you the Committee are unable to consider any inquiry such as you make without the written consent of the Owners, as required by the Society's printed Rules.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
