

"C O P Y"

COPY.

PORT OF

18th October, 1909.

Messrs. Lloyd's Surveyors,
MIDDLESBROUGH.

Dear Sirs,

Referring to our s.s. No. 136, the following is extract from the agreement:-

"This vessel is a duplicate of No. 135, with the exception that she has to be built to Lloyd's highest Class (New Rules) instead of British Corporation."

The specification for No. 137 & 138, reads:-

"Class - The vessel to be classed 1901 Lloyds New Rules.

The Agreement for No. 140 reads:-

"It is agreed that this vessel is of same dimensions, specifications, and plans as steamers numbered 137, 138 & 139.

Yours truly,

For Craig, Taylor & Co. Ltd.,

Ed. H. Taylor

© 2020

Lloyd's Register
Foundation