2nd July 1915.

Dear Sirs,

I am favoured with your letter of this morning respecting the case of your steamer "IONIS", and in reply thereto I have pleasure in stating that Mr. Martell, who surveyed this vessel at Grimsby in April last, has been instructed by telegram to proceed to Newcastle and join the Society's local Surveyors in the survey of this vessel tomorrow morning.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
