

Copy of a letter dated 15th May 1917, received 17th May, 1917,
from the Society's Surveyor at Grimsby.

Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 4th instant respecting the under-mentioned vessels I beg to inform you they are still in the Service of the Government.

S.T. "AGILE"                      The Owners were advised by the Admiralty of the loss of this vessel two weeks ago. Cause not known.

S.T. "YESSO".                      Owner states vessel sunk by mine off Aberdeen on 9th February last.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

(Sgd.) C. Martell.

The Secretary,

London.
