Sir

I beg to further acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 9th August respecting the Schooner "Elizabeth Pritchard" & I very much regret to inform you that Mr James Ryan the owner died at this port a few days ago I had an interview with his brother Mr D. Ryan & he informs me that the Schooner left the Labrador coast with a cargo of fish; he also informs me he has tried & is still trying to get metal & as soon as he gets it the vessel will be dry docked & survey completed.

I am Sir

Your obedient servant
James BlackThe Secretary
