HULL, 2nd February, 1917.

Dear Sirs,

Before referring the enclosed account for the consideration of our London Office, I would like to call your attention to the Rules and Regulations of this Society of which you are a subscriber.

If you will look up Section 22, paragraph 2 also Section 29 paragraphs 4 & 7 you will see that you are liable for the expenses incurred.

In the circumstances I should be glad if you could see your way to square up this matter as these fees are outstanding in our Books.

Yours faithfully,

/Sgd) R.WRIGHT.
