18th April, 1921.

Dear Mr. Boulton,

I was duly favoured with your letter of the 13th instant, and carefully note your remarks regarding the circumstances attending the loss of the steamers "MIELERO", "CUBADIST" and "HEWITT".

I may say that I have communicated to you confidentially all the particulars we have obtained on this subject, but if any further information comes into our possession I shall be very happy to let you have it, although I think you agreed with me when I had the pleasure of discussing the matter with you on the 12th instant that the further information which you asked might very well be sought from Lloyd's Agent in New York.

Yours sincerely,

Sidney A. Boulton, Esq.,
