Andrew Scott Esq.,

Secretary,

Messrs Lloyds Register of British & Foreign Shipping, London. E.C.

I confirm telegram sent you this morning as follows:- "Three less Anchors supplied by me to Ropners Stockton their 501 Steamer" irty-five pounds short-weight total should be six tons nineteen " ing to Admiralty demands I cannot send another Anchor hope under" ifficult circumstances you will pass same the difference being so" small Green Old Hill".

I enclose copies of letters to Messrs Ropner & Sons Ltd and also their letter and telegrams in reference to this matter, and I give ow particulars of Anchors ordered and those supplied shewing actual ge of 35 lbs only, as you are no doubt aware the circumstances owing War have made the Stockless Anchor trade most difficult and most of olies at the beginning of the War were absolutely stopped and Patterns be prepared and placed with new Firms. All available stocks of Anchors were required by the Admiralty who are still taking great s and it has been impossible to work exactly to weights ordered, as been in the habit of doing and under these circumstances cannot at think you will have no objection to giving your Surveyor of
