tion of Survey held, &c.

LMC held

The Special Survey No 3 due Oct 1914 has been partly held & to complete same 30 fathoms of chain cable requires to be supplied.

The Aberdeen Surveyors now state they are informed by the new owner (Messrs Duncan & Leith of Aberdeen) the vessel is at present trading between East Coast ports & French ports & is expected to come to Aberdeen in about 2 months time.

It is stated the new cable is still lying at Port Dinornie & the owner has given instructions for it to be forwarded by rail to Aberdeen ready to be placed aboard at the first opportunity.

It is submitted action might be deferred for the present.
