Dear Sirs,

s.s. "Archbank".

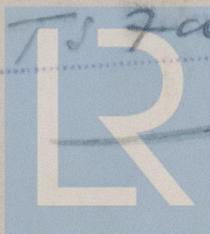

We are in receipt of your letter of the 28th instant.

This vessel, being on Admiralty service, we are not advised of her movements, but we understand that she will shortly arrive in the United Kingdom, when we will, as you request, have her submitted to a general examination in view of the special No. 3 Survey, and, if possible, we will have the permanent repairs effected for the damage received in the Mediterranean.

Yours faithfully,

FOR AND ON BEHALF OF
