Dear Sir,

S.S. "KERVEGEN."

With reference to your letter of 19th. instant, regarding particulars required in connection with the freeboard assignment, we beg to inform you that in response to several enquiries from ourselves, the Owners' Local Agents had promised to arrange with the Captain for facilities to be afforded for the required examination to be made, but they advised us this morning that the vessel will be proceeding to sea today and that it will not be possible for the matter to receive attention upon this occasion.

They add that the Captain has not received any instructions from his Owners on the subject and that the vessel is proceeding to Bordeaux and Bilbao, returning either to Middlesbrough or the Tyne.

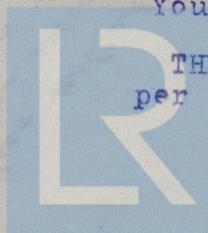

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

THE SURVEYORS,

Referred to the Chief Ship Surveyor.

26 APR 1927

It does not appear that any special facilities were required to enable the Surveyor to obtain the information is submitted. In the circumstances it is advised and requested to arrange for the necessary particulars to be obtained at the earliest opportunity. One copy of the shear diagram should be returned for their use.
