Newport Sept. 24th 1849.

Sir/

I am very sorry for this trouble, respecting the Schooner "Breeze" of this port, lately taken by me, and I suppose I have committed a blunder, in my report calling her Smack instead of Schooner, as it should be, the owner requests of me to write to you know if it would do to amend the word. Smack from the Certificate, for the^{and} anxious to have it forwarded to Galatz, waiting your reply.

I am your obedient servant

To
Charles Graham Esq.
