

well seasoned & I should say rather improved than other
- view by remaining on the stocks, I do not know if this should be considered a second survey or only a continuation of No: 412.
I have not numbered the enclosures

Yours St. L.
A. Sparrow

Wexford 22 May 1869

W. B. Sparrow Esq.

Sir, I now send survey of act job of the "Mermaid" of Wexford she is the same vessel
I reported on 10th July 1868 No:
412 then built, but remaining on the stocks until the 12th Inst.
when she was launched etc finished, I have as directed carefully examined the Keel, Plank, Caulking, Decks &
Ceiling, they are all perfect
The Spars were kept under on the above named from the Light Water Mark to the Wales

Wales and Black-strakes are

Red Iron & Arch

The Topsides & Sheer-strakes

Red Iron & Lar

Cover so in fact the vessel is

WEX1031-0236

© 2021

Lloyd's Register
Foundation